

April 2018 Margaret Aylward Centre Conference What Might Empowering Justice Look Like?

A special conference, at the end of April, invited participants to reflect on justice, empowerment and empowerment through networking. After an excellent morning's reflection from Diarmuid O' Murchu, participants were invited to apply the principles of this vision to particular areas of work – Advocacy, Activism, Community Engagement, Homelessness, Prison, or Addiction. A wonderfully rich conversation flowed that inspired and benefited all present.

After a fantastic day, Sr. Brenda summed it up well when she expressed deep gratitude for Diarmuid's input throughout the day, saying "You made it seem doable. You have given us a compass."
